

GBC Becomes Duplo's Core Dealer - Graphics & On-Demand Products

Mississauga, Ontario, July 31st, 2014. GBC, the market leader in document finishing, has recently been awarded the important distinction of Core Dealer status for the Canadian market. This agreement will provide GBC with access to Duplo's complete line of all-in-one slitter/cutter/creasers, folders, perfect binders, sheet feeders, booklet making, and saddle stitching systems for offset and digital printers in both high production and small office environments.

This alliance will allow GBC to leverage its leading nationwide network of sales experts to recommend the best Duplo solution for their extensive customer base across the Canadian printing industry. GBC's team of nationwide certified field technicians have many years of experience installing, training and servicing Duplo equipment. With this new partnership, the GBC Service organization will be extending these services to the full Duplo line of Graphics and On-demand products.

"We are very excited about this opportunity to represent Duplo across Canada and believe that this partnership between GBC and Duplo provides a total solution approach for our customers, helping them to maximize productivity and their return on investment," says Ed Lovekin, ACCO Brands' Sr. Vice President, Finance & Business Development.

Quote from Si Nguyen, Vice President of Duplo USA Corporation:

"We are very pleased to further our partnership with GBC and welcome them into our elite group of Duplo Core Dealers. As a Core Dealer, GBC has exemplified the added qualifications and dedication necessary to provide the utmost in service and sales support to our customers and the Duplo Printer Vendor Partner Program. With the expanded Duplo product line now offered through GBC and their deep commitment to helping clients achieve the best finishing solution possible to grow their business, we are confident that GBC will serve customers in the Canadian market exceptionally well."
